Pecuniary Interests	27 October 2016	Employee Sheffield Hallam University
Personal Profile: My professional domain is Physical Education. I have previously been a teacher in secondary school as well as further education. Since 2002, I have been a Senior Lecturer in the Academy of Sport and Physical Activity at Sheffield Hallam University. I have worked collaboratively with schools as part of the teacher education programmes across the Yorkshire, Lincolnshire and Derbyshire areas. I was awarded the University Inspirational Teacher Award in 2016 in recognition of the commitment to supporting the learning of the students who voted for me. I am currently Learning Teaching and Assessment Lead for the Physical Education and School Sport undergraduate programme and I have been involved in the pedagogical mentoring of both graduate teachers, Ph.D. graduate trainees and academic staff who are new to the higher education sector. I strongly believe that professional relationships should be based on collaborative working, open dialogue, integrity and respect for both colleagues and students. In my own teaching, I work to create active learning spaces which are truly democratic and participatory; where all voices are valued and where individual learner experiences form the basis for them to personalise their own learning journey. I wanted to become a governor at school to help children reach their potential in a democratic, creative and academically challenging environment. Julie's skills are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Producing creative learning opportunities which personalise student educational experiences. Fostering productive working environments in and beyond the core academic teaching team. Working collaboratively across disciplines and sectors to meet common objectives.
